

The Jackson Kelly attorneys working in the Banking & Finance practice area are experienced in advising and representing holding companies, banks, and other regulated entities regarding organizational issues, lending, corporate compliance, regulatory compliance, regulatory examinations, fiduciary activities, securitizations, and risk management.

Our attorneys specializing in this practice area have been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America®, as well as in Chambers and Partners' America's Leading Business Lawyers and Super Lawyers.