

When issues of professional liability arise, attorneys in Jackson Kelly's Professional Liability, Errors and Omissions practice area provide aggressive and efficient malpractice defense to a wide range of individual and corporate clients, including law firms, architects, accounting firms, and many more. The attorneys in this practice area know what is necessary to protect and defend the reputations of these professional clients.

The Firm provides a full complement of legal services to these professionals, including:

- Defense counseling & representation in malpractice claims
- Representation in professional grievance & disciplinary matters
- Risk mitigation consulting, including educational programs, audits & the development of policies, procedures, forms & manuals
- Ethics consulting