

The Jackson Kelly Real Estate practice group consists of attorneys with decades of experience in the practice of real estate law. Clients include local and national real estate owners, developers and investors, life insurance companies, and other financial institutions.

The attorneys in this practice area have experience in matters involving:

- Title examinations and title matters
- Title insurance
- Land acquisition representation, from procurement of property rights to closings
- Land use and zoning
- Financing construction projects of all sizes
- Obtaining interim & permanent financing on all types of commercial real estate projects locally, regionally & nationally
- Purchase & sale of real estate
- Leasing
- Real estate construction & development issues
- Drafting letters of intent
- Drafting opinion letters
- Ground leasing
- Secured creditor bankruptcy matters
- Workouts
- Foreclosures & related litigation