Trinity J. Gray is an Associate practicing in the Banking and Financial Services industry groups, focusing primarily on tax. She practices out of the Firm's office in Charleston, West Virginia.

Although Trinity's practice focuses on tax, she is also well versed in trust and estates, mergers and acquisitions, banking and finance, and business law.

Trinity earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree in accounting, cum laude, with a minor in political science from West Virginia University. She then went on to earn a Juris Doctor from West Virginia University College of Law and, at the same time, earned a Master's in Business Administration, summa cum laude, from West Virginia University College of Business & Economics. Most recently, Trinity returned to law school to earn an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University School of Law. There, she further refined and expanded her knowledge in the areas of tax, trusts and estates, estate planning, business law, corporate law, non-profit organizations, and charitable giving.

Trinity loves the adrenaline rush she gets when she solves a complex tax problem or finds the answer to a tough question. Trinity is an avid sports fan and always cheers for the West Virginia University Mountaineers. She also enjoys traveling, reading, lifting weights, and spending time with her fiancé, family, and six siblings.
